

RESIDENTIAL PARKING PERMIT RENEWAL

Your current Residential Parking Permit(s) expires June 30th of this year.

Due to COVID-19, renewing by mail or email is the preferred method. If you cannot renew by mail, please call the Parking Division at (707 543-3325) to schedule an appointment to renew in person.

Renew your permit(s) by mail to:

CITY OF SANTA ROSA, PARKING DIVISION
90 Santa Rosa Avenue
Santa Rosa, CA 95404

Please see reverse side of this page for required items needed to renew your residential permits
(incomplete applications will be returned)

The Parking Division now uses an online Self-Service Permit Center where residents manage their new digital residential permits. An email address is needed to activate your account and will serve as your user log-in. Please write legibly below to provide an email address you want to use as your login credential.

Residential Permit Instructions

Please submit all of the following (incomplete applications will be returned):

1. Completed Residential Parking Permit Renewal form
2. Current CA DMV registration for each vehicle*, up to three vehicles per residence.
 - * Vehicles in excess of 8,000 pounds gross vehicle weight (Ord. 2713) are excluded from the program.
 -  Vehicle must be registered to the address listed on the renewal or a P.O. Box
3. Processing fee of $20.00 – PLEASE NOTE: Fee applies to each transaction if permits are purchased or renewed as separate transactions. Make check or money order payable to the City of Santa Rosa.

Beginning July 1, 2021, your license plate number will serve as your permit credential allowing your vehicle to be exempt from the time limited parking restrictions. A vehicle's license plate must be visible to Parking Enforcement Officers. Vehicles without a digital permit on file are subject to the time restrictions posted on the street.

The permit may be transferred among your personal motor vehicles or temporarily to a visitor's motor vehicle using the new online Self-Service Permit Center. More information about temporary transfers will be provided in an email confirmation when permits are renewed. A residential permit is only valid on a vehicle with current registration tags from the Department of Motor Vehicles. The permit is not valid for use in vehicles that exceed 8,000 pounds gross vehicle weight (Ord. 2713).

The permit is valid only on eligible blocks in zones for which the permit has been issued. A map of all eligible blocks in each permit zone can be found on the Santa Rosa City website at <http://srcity.org/198>.

If a vehicle is sold, vehicle updates can be made at the online Self-Service Permit Center. If the permit holder moves from the area, please notify the City of Santa Rosa, Parking Division at srparking@srcity.org or (707) 543-3325.

Residential permit(s) may be renewed by mail with proper documentation and payment.

Residential permit(s) are not valid at parking meters.

Residential permit(s) will be revoked in any of the following situations:

- If any person falsely represents themselves as eligible for a parking permit or furnishes false information to the Parking Division in order to obtain a permit;
- If any person allows or uses a permit for commuter parking. Commuter parking shall mean use of a permit for the purpose of parking to go to one's place of employment or educational institution; and
- If any person sells, transfers, exchanges, assigns, photocopies, produces or otherwise brings into existence a facsimile or counterfeit permit in order to evade parking regulations.
