I'm in favor of map 113 overall.
I think it looks the most fair and balanced to me, giving generally distinct areas each some representation. Many of the maps subdivide parts of downtown into 3-4 districts, which will have the effect of the downtown area, of which I am a resident, having the possible outcome of taking 3-4 seats, and I just dont think that's really fair, and it's not the intent of the statue which the city has been pressed to follow.
