

MASSAGE PRACTITIONERS/THERAPISTS

On September 27, 2008, the State of California enacted SB 731 Massage Therapy Title Act. This law commenced September 1, 2009, providing for a voluntary statewide certification of massage practitioners and massage therapists by the Massage Therapy Organization.

Due to changes in State law, Santa Rosa Police Department no longer issues massage therapist, massage business and massage therapist/business permits however, new Santa Rosa City Ordinance No. 3937 requires massage practitioners/therapists to be state certified.

Applications for state certification are available from the California Massage Therapy Council (CAMTC). Call (916) 669-5336 or visit their website at www.camtc.org

WHO MUST APPLY

Independent Contractors, Out-Call, and Employees of a massage establishment. Any professional who performs or engages in the practice of massage within the city limits of Santa Rosa must possess a valid and unrevoked state certificate.
